

Section J: Practice Location

Our normal source of information on practice location data is unable to provide data the Canadian Post-M.D. Education Registry (CAPER) initiative this year. Regrettably this means we will not be able to report on practice location at this time.

CAPER leadership is working with our partner organizations to find another source for this data and will update the CAPER census when this data is obtained.